

DIEGO LAREZ

PHOTOGRAPHER
HAIR ARTIST
STYLING

Diego Larez is the creator and director of the printed and digital media magazine “Dlarezmag”. Born in Argentina, Diego’s visionary career started from his 20 year hair styling profession. This translates over to his current work for ‘Dlarezmag’ where he produces content as a style photographer and hair artist.

He created his own brand called, ‘A Hairdresser’s – “Less is more” (Menos es mas). He took his first steps in the fashion industry in the “Para ti” magazine. Within seven years he began to develop a style for top media in the industry: Vogue – Harper’s Bazaar – Marie Claire – L’Official – Slimi mag – Galore – Bello – W mag – Desnudo – Ginna mag – Hola – Office magazine.

Finally, he burst on to the scene as a photographer in New York, thanks to his work with J. Balvin. This led to his work with Apple Music, Ups, Miller Lite, Vogue, Balmain Paris X DOGPOND, Vibras Lab, Fashion Tv magazine, Her world, Amazon video campaign (The boy from Medellin)

DOGPOND

A black and white photograph of a man's bare chest. He is wearing a dark leather jacket that is open, and a dark arm warmer on his right arm. The arm warmer has the word "DOGPOND" printed on it in a bold, sans-serif font. The man's chest is hairy, and his hands are clasped in front of him. The word "DOGPOND" is also printed in large, bold, white letters across the center of the image, partially obscuring the man's chest.
